ROUND THE SQUARES

Black Diamond Squares had their picnic at the home of JoAnn and Vince Haurilko. All Club Members were present with special guests Bill and Martha Appleby.

Several members of Bachelor & Bachelorettes enjoyed the 12th Annual Dance-a-rama in Washington over the Labor Day weekend. There were 1038 dancers from all over the United States.

The Bucks & Does wish to express sincere thanks to all people from other Clubs who helped make our 1st. Annual Dinner Dance at Spring Valley Inn a success. Hope to see more of you next year.

Don't miss — Curli Q's Spaghetti Dinner on November 14th. This starts at 6 p.m. and a charge of $2.00 per adult and $1.00 per child will be made. Bill Appleby will be their Guest Caller that night.

The Grand Squares will have a Pizza Party Dance on November 20. Their Christmas Dinner Dance will be on December 18th and both of these affairs will require tickets, Marie Haydt tells us.

MEMBERSHIP

The Membership Committee, Jim and Ruth McLay and Joe and Betty Mathers have membership packets distributed to each Club. The fee is the same as last year, $6.00, and this entitles you to six issues of Squares and Rounds. Your card also is entry for the three Free Summer Dances as well as the Membership Dance on November 7th.

This Dance will be at Benner Hall and the Callers and Cuers have already been contacted and accepted. We sincerely hope that more of our Clubs will have 100 percent membership to report.

BALTIMORE CONVENTION NEWS

March 19, 1983. Mark your calendars for that very special Saturday. This is the 33rd's "Kick-off" dance to be held at their Convention Center in Baltimore. This dance will be the only time you can register for the Baltimore National before June 1983. Your registration fee of $16.00 per person is your entrance into the "Kickoff" dance also.

For those interested in staying over that evening, arrangements are being made through Housing and Registration for a weekend package plan at the Hilton. Details are not yet finished, however we will get the information to you as soon as it is available. More details in next issue.

NEW CLUB

We welcome a new Club into our Mid East Penn District. Hickory Hill Promenaders will be dancing every Tuesday from 8 to 10:30 at Hickory Hills Mobile Home Park Community Center. Their Caller is Ed Kozlowski. Good Luck and many years of Happy Dancing.

HOW TRUE

Once upon a time, John and Mary graduated from Square Dance Class and headed for their first dance. They were nervous, but Mary kept murmuring, "The Caller will call it, and we'll dance it."

Poor Mary, on do-sa-do, she tried to go back to back, you know, but a big Bruiser grabbed her, swung her 5/8 around, and she missed the Ocean Wave and broke the set. Her lip began to tremble.

When they were "Weaving the Ring", Mary found herself jolted several feet sideways by the Big Bruiser's hip. John was amazed when a strange woman grabbed his hands and rubbed her side against him. John began to blush and Mary developed a limp.

They were heads, but they didn't get to promenade halfway; the other heads burst into the middle of the square and truned them so vigorously that John tripped on his own feet, missed the square-thru, and broke the set. His knees began to tremble.

"Load the Boat" — Oh, Mary was happy to try that! She had practiced it so long in workshop. She was thinking "pass through and quarter out", when she was suffocated in a massive bear hug (Yep, the Big B., Again!)

As they staggered to the refreshment table, Mary was murmuring to herself again:

Do-sa-do means swing and twirl.

Weave the ring means "Bruise your girl."

Heads promenade is a head-on collision.

And Load the Boat is a Yellow-Rock position.

Thanks to CUES & TIPS, OHIO

Lee and Janice Huber from the Yellow Rockers wish to thank their friends who helped them celebrate their Silver Anniversary. They arrived late on Sept. 14th at the Huber home with refreshments and a "Kettle Band." Now they know they have "A Friend in Pennsylvania"??

R & R Squares opened their new season on Friday, September 10th. There were about 11 Squares present. The Senatores had a loss in their family, so Russ Booz was gracious enough to fill in on a last minutes notice. You did a terrific job, Russ, we were happy to have you.

The Schuylkill Promenades would like to wish all their Square Dance Friends a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New Year.

Perky Promenaders took two squares to the Eastern Pa. Eastern Star Home, located in Warminster for a demonstration of both Round and Square Dancing on September 28th. George and Elaine Potts added a touch of class with their special Round Dance number. Another demonstration is scheduled for Saturday, November 6th at Peddler's Village, Lahaska. This will be part of the Annual Apple Festival.

The Executive Board of Melody Lakes Belles & Beaus are honored to have Dot & Cliff Kehrle as members of our Club. They were recently interviewed by the Allentown Morning Call and pictures were taken for their "Neighbors" section. They could not have interviewed a more informed couple. We're sure the interview will be beneficial to all Square and Round Dance Clubs. Thank you, Dot & Cliff for everything.

Jeff and Carol Gehris hosted a swim party and picnic for the Pal Promenaders in August. The weather was perfect and a large variety of food was supplied. Everyone had a fun day.

Christmas City Square Dance Club is making a plea for more Dancers to support their Club, especially those from the Bethlehem area. They dance Mainstream on the second Friday and fourth Saturday of each month at West Side Moravian Church, Third and Prospect Avenues in Bethlehem. They need your support to keep their Club going.

The Stardusters of Berks Co. had their Annual Dinner Dance at the Kutztown Grange on September 18th. Gloria Roth was our Caller and her calling along with a great meal made the evening quite eventful. We are planning to have Frankie Lane from Estes Park, Colorado for a ticket dance on Tuesday, May 10th. Advance tickets are one dollar cheaper than at the door.

Melody Lakes Belles & Beaus will hold a Wine & Cheese Party on November 17th. Dancing is continuous until 10 o'clock and then tables are set up and the party begins. Everyone seems to thoroughly enjoy these evenings. We will have a cookie exchange at our Christmas Party on December 15th.

Ron Libby is the National Caller the Yellow Rockers have chosen for a ticket Dance. Saucon Valley High School, Hellertown is the place and the date is Sunday, January 16th, 1983.

Valley Squares sadly report that John and Nance Sweeney will not be calling and cueing for them after the December Dances. We wish them well in all their future endeavors and hope they will come back and visit us once in a while.

Dixie Derbies are changing the location of their New Year's Eve Dance. It will be held at Presentation of Our Lord Byzantine Catholic Church in Lansdale. Tickets are now on sale.
