We hope that both new and experienced dancers are enjoying the summer and are taking advantage of every opportunity to dance. We are looking forward to seeing you at the Free Summer Dances on July 20th and August 17th.

The new classes will be starting in only two months. So now is the time to start encouraging your friends and acquaintances to join a class and learn to square or round dance. Spread the word about the good friendship and fun of square and round dancing.

Come celebrate with us at the 30th DVS&RD Convention at the Cherry Hill Hyatt on September 19-21, 1991.

1991 WILDWOOD WEEKEND

by Roy & Marion Goerlich

On a somewhat breezy, but sunny weekend, nearly 250 dancers from the Delaware Valley Federation enjoyed a splendid interlude at the "Wildwoods by the Sea".

A great time to enjoy the seasons first adventure at the seashore, meeting and dancing with new and familiar acquaintances from in and out of our area.

I don't know what was enjoyed the most...the beach, the boardwalk, the dancing or just being together with great weather, the sea and wonderful people.

Among the many amenities were Judy's Square Dance Shop, the nice rooms of the motels (the Aquarius, the Newport and Days Inn), the fine food of Johnson's Restaurant, the shops near Convention Hall that stayed open as long as we danced, and last but not least, the outstanding staff -- the delightful cueing of Rich Lock and the fine, fun calling of Ted Knauss and Dalt Young. Plus, the excellent efforts of Frank & Terry Kaiss and their team of diligent assistants.

LOCAL VS. NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

by Roy & Marion Goerlich

Both a bird's and worm's eye view of a square dance convention would basically be the difference between national and local callers/cuers. It is not that one would find much difference in quality but when one would go to a National Convention and find callers/cuers that could be found at home it would hardly be worth the expense. So at National Conventions one finds the representatives of the local talent. This gives us a good reason to go to all the areas for a National Convention.

On the other hand, at a local convention we have the opportunity to dance to many outstanding National callers/cuers that we would only occasionally enjoy.

Both have strong qualities that eliminate the choosing competition and makes it worth while to attend both types of conventions.

MY COUNTRY

by Elsie Wolf

My country, my country, what do you mean to me?

You are love, you are home, you are security.

You are freedom to worship the faith I profess.

You are freedom of speech, and freedom of press.

You are the land of the free, and the home of the brave,

You are the star spangled banner, and long may you wave.

You are the land of our forefathers, so brave and true,

You helped raise our colors the red, white and blue.

You are a haven of refuge for both rich and poor,

Where all men are equal, opportunity sure.

Our lady of liberty, torch high in hand, Beckons a welcome, "Come to our land."

Thank God for America, my prayer is for thee,

My country, my country, that's what you mean to me.

41ST NATIONAL QUILT PROJECT

When the National Square Dance Convention was nothing more than a dream, we thought it would be a great idea to promote the convention by making a quilt that would involve all 50 states. This had never been done before. In 1988, after Ohio was awarded the 41st National Convention, this idea was presented to the Buckeye Board and approved.

In August 1989, the first letters of information were sent to friends in each of the 50 states. Some went to dancers we knew personally and others went to names from the "National Square Dance Directory". After many letters were exchanged and after being referred to other dancers several times, we are thrilled to announce that this dream of a quilt is almost a reality. As of January, we had 44 quilt patches in hand with the other six promised by early February. It is amazing how different each quilt patch is, and the thought that has been put into each patch is remarkable. There is a great array of colors and themes.

There has been so much enthusiasm for this project by the dancers of the various state organizations. Even though letters were originally sent to individuals, many requests were eventually handled through the state organizations. We thank everyone who helped support the completion of each state patch.

Originally, we had hoped to display the completed quilt at the Pre-Convention Dance on March 16, 1991. But, after consulting with our "Quilt-maker in Charge of Assembly and Quilting", Marian Heismann, we have decided that the assembled, unquilted patchwork will be displayed at that time. It will be quilted at different locations throughout the southwestern Ohio area before the 41st National Convention.

Further information will soon be published. We hope that each dancer in the area will take time for a few quilting stitches, for posterity.

THE ROUND OF THE MONTH

by Peg Dockry

What is the Round of the Month (ROM) and where did the idea originate? Brian & Sharon Bassett of "Round Dancer" Magazine, tell us that ROMs existed before the first publication of that magazine by Bud & Lil Knowland in Tucson, Arizona in 1957, but the first national publication of ROMs was through "Round Dancer" Magazine. In March, 1958, that publication first mentioned ROMs, listing those of the Arizona Round Dance Leaders Association back to 1956. In April, 1958, "Round Dancer" Magazine published its first cue sheet stamped "Arizona Round Dance Leaders Association's ROM". Later in August, 1959, "Round Dancer" Magazine first listed ROMs on page one with Arizona and southern California represented, followed by an expansion in October to include central and northern California and Oregon. All areas were invited to send in their ROMs. From that point on, the listings grew to become a regular feature of "Round Dancer" Magazine.

What is the ROM? When we started 20 years ago, it was an "easy" dance that could be taught during the course of a square dance, in a time slot of approximately 10 minutes. I do not recall "pre-rounds" at any of the dances I attended, but if they did exist, they were not as prevalent as they are today. Our present ROMs are selected by the area's Round Dance Association, with the practice nationwide of choosing ROMs from Phase II on up. Teachers vote for the best of a selection of records presented for consideration, looking for interesting routines, appealing music and well-constructed choreography.

Originally, to whom was the ROM (or "square dancer's round") addressed? Its classification would have been Phase II by today's standards, and I see it being directed then (as today) to the fairly new graduate and to the long-time dancers who graduated from round dance basics, but never did much beyond that point. This group of people, for whatever reason, have chosen not to progress higher in their round dancing; however, this choice should not shadow their enjoyment of what they know. It is expected that all teachers in an association area will teach the designated ROM and, this being so, the Phase II ROM should add another dance to the repertoire of the Phase II dancer. Now and again, the addition of a Plus 1 or 2 to the rating can afford a brief (and hopefully) enjoyable educational experience.

In conclusion, the ROM is judiciously selected by leaders, but not in the spirit of "This is what you should like." It remains a recommendation, until the seal of approval is ultimately awarded by the dancers. We may slap on the record at every dance with grim determination, but it is only when we hear, "Can you play the dance that you taught last week?", that we know the ROM is a success.

WELCOME TO CINCINNATI!

by Wayne & Miriam Florea

We extend a warm and hearty welcome to you from the city of Cincinnati!

As you attend the 41st National Convention on June 25-27, 1992 in Cincinnati, you will find yourself in a tri-state area -- Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana. We will attempt to share highlights of the surrounding areas that you might include in your visit to Cincinnati. Ohio, especially, represents a cross-section of our nation. With its location on the Ohio River and Lake Erie and with its many rivers and canals, Ohio was open to great exploration, trade and industrial growth. People of all nationalities, races and beliefs settled this "Buckeye State". The rich glacial soils allowed farming to flourish. Ohio will have much to offer you with its large metropolitan areas, Indian heritage, water recreation, state parks, sports facilities, beautiful scenery and historic points of interest.

Our city has many beautiful attractions as does our neighbor, Northern Kentucky and her churches, Main Strasse Village, with each extending a friendly hand and saying, "We're glad you've come."

Beginning the countdown to June 25-27, 1992, the 41st National Convention Committee is putting high priority on efforts on getting all data and scheduled activities finalized.

Among the interests to all dancers, we have over 190,000 sq. ft. of dancing area, close hotels, fine restaurants and plenty of shopping areas.

Cincinnati is considered a Convention City, so it's always quite busy making sure people are happy and satisfied.

Please make yourself comfortable and enjoy your stay in Cincinnati.

Perhaps you would like to add "appliques" to decorate a solid color skirt or shirt. If you are original, you could design your own applique. You may also buy patterns of alliques in your local fabric store.

Cut your applique out of a different print or different color material and use "stitch witchery" (available at most fabric stores). Be careful to line up both pieces and place on garment and steam press it on your skirt or shirt.

If you choose to zig zag the applique for top stitching, put a piece of pelon on the underneath side of the garment. This will prevent the applique from puckering the material. Then, zig zag the applique around the edges. Do not use too small of a stitch. It is better to use a medium stitch and go around two times (if desired). Cut away excess pelon.

Turned edge appliques are harder and take more time to do and can not be done in a hurry. Perhaps in a later edition we will go into this method.

I hope everyone is enjoying their vacation by now and square dancing up a storm wearing your original creations of square dance attire.

members Ernie & Anne Judd.) Best of luck, Sheri! We have found square dancers to be a generous and caring group in general, and the Eastonaires are truly a good example, with their fine spirit of helping others.

Club badges sometimes have an unusual story, and this club's badge design is a copy of the Easton Peace Candle, in Easton's Center Square for the Christmas holidays -- and now, for those serving in the Persian Gulf, until they're back home. It was designed by Clare & Pat Barnes. (Clare was club caller and cuer from January, 1977, when he and Pat formed the club, until he retired in 1979.)

Dalt & Barbara Young became club caller in March, 1981, and held their first class in September, 1981 at Easton Area High School. (Classes are under the Adult Education Night School Program.) Josephine Harris cued rounds until July, 1983, when Elaine & Ted Novak took over.

If you've been looking for a square dance on Monday evenings, look no more! Just come to the First Methodist Church, 34 S. Second Street, Easton, PA, where you'll enjoy good dancing with Dalt and Elaine from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. every Monday, with the Eastonaires. (Use the alley on the east side of Easton Hotel for public parking behind the church.)

EASTONAIRES

At the Eastonaires there is a tradition of contributing to several good causes -- to list a few: each November "Toys for Tots" benefits from this civic-minded group that helps enable them to buy and repair toys to distribute at Christmas; and again in December, the Jaycees Shopping Tour for underprivileged children of Easton and Phillipsburg are recipients of their generosity. In 1991, they are sponsoring Sheri Gansell of Bethlehem, PA for "Miss Teen of PA Recognition and Scholarship Pagaent". (Sheri is a grand-daughter of club

QUAKER EIGHTS

While gathering material for this report -- from Art Landis (club founder) and Sam & Peggy Brubaker (club president) -- we learned that the Quaker Eights, in past years, performed at the Harrisburg Farm Show in competition with other square dance clubs throughout Pennsylvania.

These and many more memories are found between the beautifully handmade album covers (in club colors - red and white) in the scrapbooks kept by club photographer and historian Dot Breisch. The albums are displayed only at special events -- such as the Annual Dinner Dance at Milford Square Fire Hall on the 2nd Saturday in April, on Class Graduation nights, etc.

We found a flyer for the club's first Dinner Dance in 1970, when 102 tickets were sold (cost: $3.50 per person), a two-day Pocono Weekend (total cost: $26.00 per person), caller fees: $25.00, hall rent: $10.00, coffee mate: $.50 -- oh, for the good old days, hmm?

There was a flyer prepared by Dot Dickert in August, 1967 to advertise the Free Square Dance Festival on September 9, 1967 with Bud Weisen calling. It attracted a large crowd and led to the first club dance -- with 19 couples as members -- on October 14, 1967 with Bob Lambert calling. Phil Kennedy also called that first year, and by 1969 membership had doubled. Hayes Herschler was then hired as regular club caller, followed by Charles Kides, beginning in 1971.

Several locations were used through the years for the dances first held once a month, then on both the 2nd and 4th Saturdays. Various callers were used -- Howard Wills, Lamar Deck, Bill Morrell, John Miller, Hugh Graham, Bill Thiede, Bill Appleby and others. Frank Fertsch has been club cuer for the past 15 years.

Quaker Eights now dance on 2nd, 4th and 5th Saturdays, 8:00-10:30 p.m. at the Elementary School on 7th Street in Quakertown, PA -- September through the 2nd Saturday in May with various callers, and on the 5th Saturday a special dance with well-known callers such as Carl Hanks.

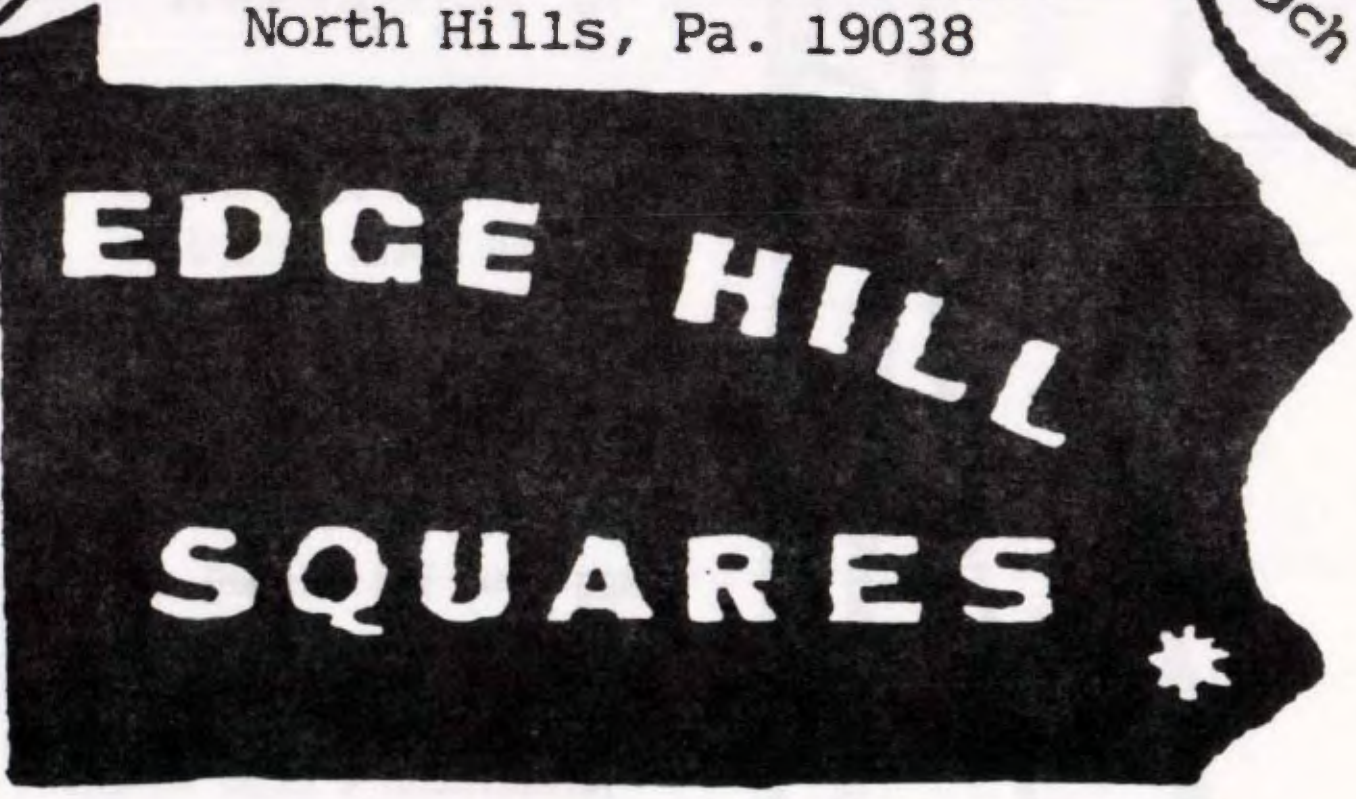

Classes start on the 1st Monday in October, 7:30-9:45 p.m. at the Elementary School with Jim Snyder teaching since 1985. This club's class also is listed with the Adult Evening School Program, which provides much more exposure, according to Art Landis, as the evening school brochure is mailed throughout the school district. And, Art is still "angeling" the classes! Plus lessons follow after graduation on May 13th, and continue through the summer, at the air-conditioned YMCA. Any new graduates are welcome.

The club calander includes two Covered Dish Dinners, first at the Christmas Dance in December, then in May, at the Election of New Officers. Participation on the Halloween Parade in town has become a regular date in recent years to promote square dancing, and an exhibition dance at the Richland Mall during September (Square Dance Month) also helps build interest in the new class which begins each October.

The Quaker Eights, no doubt are planning something really super for their 25th Anniversary in 1992. Meanwhile, drop in as their new dance season starts in September.

FRIENDS OF THE HANDICAPPED DANCE (A VIEW FROM THE FLOOR)

by Bernie Marcus

April 7, 1991 was one busy weekend for Delaware Valley dancers. Bucks-Trenton District held a Plus level dance featuring Mike Callahan from Rochester, NY; Carl Hanks, Ron Libby, and Ron & Ree Rumble were at Genetti's in Hazleton for an Advanced level weekend event; South Jersey Dancers held a Double Header with Tom Miller calling Advanced in the afternoon and Plus in the evening; and Mid-East penn District sponsored the 14th Annual Square and Round Dance for the Friends of the Handicapped. All of this was going on while clubs were trying to hold their own by encouraging their club members to be loyal and support them.

I'm sure that this year having Easter fall the way it did, it had to effect events being reshuffled to make them come out this way. How about that weather! -- for this weekend it was summer. It was hot! The heat wave broke all records in the Delaware Valley, as well as all over the country. Ever since they put that guy on the moon -- its got the weather all screwed up.

On April 7, 1991, Joan and I attended the Friends of the Handicapped Dance at Upper Dublin Sr. High School in Fort Washington, PA. This was the 14th year for this event. Perhaps you recall that it was originally run by Cliff & Dot Kehrle and after a few years, Aaron & Rose Silverstein offered their services to help. As best as I can determine its been about 11 years now since Aaron & Rose took over the event on behalf of the Mid-East Penn District. You may recall it was originally held at the Souderton High School, but when they began remodeling the school it forced Aaron to look elsewhere for a facility, which brought it to its present location.

The Friends of the Handicapped is a non-profit organization in the State of Pennsylvania. The Friends of the Handicapped baked, bought and served the refreshments at the dance; Hatfield Meats donated the hot dogs; Stroehman's Bakery donated the rolls; all condiments, paper goods, etc. were donated; and Seven-Up donated the soda. All of the money taken in as a result of refreshment sales, dance tickets and donations is turned over to benefit the handicapped.

All door prizes were also donated. The door prizes are solicited by Aaron & Rose through all of the clubs in the Mid-East Penn District and beyond. Aaron spends endless hours contacting restaurants, car washes, the Phillies ticket office, and you name it he's out there slugging away to raise whatever he can to attract dancers to build up the pot to benefit the handicapped.

As far as the organization for this event -- it's Aaron. It's a lot of work, that he obviously enjoys every much. He loves it! Over the past 11 years, this event has become part of the Silverstein life-style. When you talk to Aaron & Rose, you automatically associate them with this event.

Callers donating their time and services were: Ed Kerns, Bill Anderson (NY), Dalt Young, Nick Filone, Jim Snyder, Gordon Lentz, Mike Walsh, Buck Fish and Ted Knauss. Round Dance Leaders donating their time and services were: Frank & Grace Fertsch, Gene & Laura Senatore, Al & Gale Spinks, Peg & Joe Dockry and Donna Anderson (NY). All of these leaders did an outstanding job. Their gave it their all and they were really in the spirit of things. It was a real pleasure to go down to the class level dance and watch that group doing their thing. Aaron arranged separate halls for each of the levels. Beginner rounds, rounds for the more experienced dancers, mainstream, plus, and advanced levels for squares. All in one building for a good price with the money going to a good cause.

The Lehigh Valley Cloggers put on the show of shows. What a demonstration! Oh, that foot stompin' music! It sure looked like they were enjoying every moment of it. It was really neat to watch them put on their show. It gave us all a sense of pride to see them do their stuff. Was it a coincidence that their black outfits with red trim tied in very nicely with the dress theme for the 30th Delaware Valley Convention?

It was nice to have the support of the Friends of the Handicapped. You could not help but notice that the kids and adults in the wheelchairs were enjoying the clogging, dancing and all the activities. Friends of the Handicapped is the only "all volunteer" service organization of Bucks and Montgomery Counties dedicated to aiding and assisting people with all types of disabilities. In the past year-and-a-half, the organization has received 200 requests for special equipment ranging in price from $200.00 to $1,200.00. Disabled children, whose needs are often not met through conventional insurance programs, are a special interest of the Friends.

While talking with Aaron to gather this information, at the beginning of the event, Aaron was very busy organizing the door prize drawing and keeping tabs on all the other events going on while dancers were bringing in prizes to donate. One couple, Jack & Pat Gaylor from the Stardusters in Reading, PA, brought in their donation and David Loftus, a caller in the rough, came by to offer his services as a caller. The giving spirit seemed to be contagious.

The only money paid out during this event was to the maintenance people at the school. Otherwise, the school was donated. The dance attracts an average of 400 dancers -- which can be traced to the efforts of basically one man and a very loyal wife -- Aaron & Rose Silverstein -- doing their thing to organize such an undertaking.

Thank you, Aaron & Rose Silverstein for giving so much of your organizational ability and talent to such a good cause on our behalf. It is noticed and it is appreciated.

After the Friends of the Handicapped Dance, Joan & I headed out to Heights-town, NJ to try our skill at dancing C-1 with caller Bruce Bush. We had a big weekend and we had fun!

Don't forget -- Square Dancing is "Friendship Set to Music" -- so have fun and dance!

CONTRAS AND SQUARES

Starting in October, Contras (the long line dances) and Squares will be available for your enjoyment in the Moorestown, N.J. area.

In response to numerous requests, Jim Howatt will teach and call the Contra Dances of old and new along with Mainstream square dancing. Doris Howatt will provide line (solo) dances and mixers for a fun afternoon or evening of various dance forms.

The program will kick-off with Sunday afternoons in October and November and then shift to the 2nd Saturday evening in December, January, February, March and May. (Note: April is the N.J. State Convention.) Jim anticipates a tip of Contras alternating with squares, with lines or mixers in between. This should be a fun time.

For more information, contact Jim & Doris Howatt at (609) 298-5957.

FLY HIGH WITH EDUCATION

Major waterways have shaped the destinies of many cities throughout the U.S. heartland, and a fine example of this is Cincinnati, where the Ohio River loops through hilly terrain as it flows toward the Mississippi. Nineteenth Century riverboats brought prosperous times. Just before the Civil War, Cincinnati was the fastest growing boom town in what was then the American West. It also acquired the nickname "Queen City" thanks to a poetic tribute penned by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Because of Cincinnati's history and its river heritage, including its reign in the 1880's as "Porkopolis" (the hog butchering capital of the Midwest), "Flying Pigs" have emerged as one of the city's newest symbols. As visitors enter Bicentennial Commons at Sawyer Point Park along the Ohio River, they will not just pass through a gateway but a symbol of local history. Minneapolis sculptor Andrew Leicester has incorporated more than 15 symbols of Cincinnati's past into his highly educational introduction to the riverside park. The symbols include four crowns, representing the Queen City. These serve as bases for the flying pigs atop four tall stacks, a tribute to the steamboats that once regularly traveled the Ohio River banks here.

Because the flying pigs are part of the educational introduction to Sawyer Point Park, the 41st National Convention Education Committee selected them to symbolize that there is no limit to what we can learn. We invite you to "Fly High with Education" and attend one, or several, of the variety of Education Sessions being planned for the 41st National Convention.
